LAST WEEK- WRAP UP

We had a wonderful welcome week here at the A-State MC!

MC Ice Cream Sundae Bar, last Monday brought lots of students up to the MC to meet the staff and hear about upcoming programs.

Non-Trad Grab and Go Lunch, on Tuesday we handed out boxed lunches to non-trad students and discussed how we could better serve their population.

DiversiTEA, last Thursday we played games and chatted with International Students at an event we co-sponsored with the Student Activities Board.

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

Last week we had the great pleasure of hosting a grab and go lunch for non-traditional students. We handed out 50 boxed lunches and had the chance to speak with non-traditional students about the upcoming Non-Traditional Student Organization. We will hold an interest meeting on September 12, 2017 at 12:00 p.m. and a second opportunity at 6:00 p.m. If you are interested in the NTSO, please email astateMC@astate.edu with your name, and which meeting you would like to attend.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Q & A with Sultan

What sparked your interest in the MC?

They provide support for international students. As an international student, I know exactly how much international students need support, which the MC has always done for them.

What do you like about A-State?

Diversity! Many different cultures from many different countries.

What are your plans after you graduate?

Returning back to my country with what I have learned at A-State and trying to apply that in a way that will benefit my country.

Every week the MC Newsletter will spotlight exceptional students and faculty. This week we introduce you to our very own Sultan Almutairi. Sultan is one of the Multicultural Center interns for the Fall 2017 semester. Sultan is working on a Masters of Public Administration here at A-State. Sultan took initiative last May by approaching the new director to inquire about an internship where he could gain experience in group projects, organization, leadership and work with international students to advance understanding and cultural knowledge. His ambition and diligence made him a perfect accessory to the office. In his first week he has proven himself to be an attentive and abundantly kind individual. Every guest who has entered the center during one of his shifts has left with a smile on their faces.
