Wrap - Up

Last week the MC had one activity, A Non-Trad Panel and Lunch. Non-Traditional Students were treated to a three course meal, and a presentation by Career Services.

The MC would like to thank Career Services, their director Tiffany Johnson, and Jessica Harrington who brought some A-State students who participated in summer internships to tell us about their experiences.

The event was a wonderful opportunity for Non-Traditional Students to plan for future careers while enjoying a free meal.

If you are interested in participating in an event like this, email us.

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

On October 7, 2017, the Multicultural Center and Residence Life, held the annual Non-Trad Fall Fest. Non-Traditional students joined us on the Village Lawn for food and fun from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Approximately 150 students and their families enjoyed inflatables, a balloon artist, a photo booth, and music from a local DJ.

The event was a wonderful success, and the MC, with Residence Life, look forward to doing it again in the spring.

Staff Spotlight

This week's Student Spotlight is Maya Reed. Maya began helping the MC over the summer when we began planning our Multicultural Mixer, she was an important part of making that event such a success! Maya is originally from North Little Rock, Arkansas, and is currently majoring in Marketing. She is very involved on campus as a member of BSA, and as a Resident Assistant in Honors, LLC. Maya is also the Secretary of the Eta Upsilon chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Inc., as well as the Marketing Chair for Circle of Trust, and an Intern with the Women's Business Leadership Center. Maya's career goal is to own her own marketing firm and market for marginalized and underrepresented companies that are overlooked in corporate America.

Q & A with Maya

What would you like to see happen with the MC?

I would like to see the MC become an even greater formidable force in terms of the campus community and open the eyes and minds of students of varying backgrounds across campus.

What is one fun fact about yourself?

I love the $5 Big Box from Popeyes with all my heart!
